

SECTION 2. All persons interested in entomology shall be eligible to membership.

SECTION 3. Members who have contributed to the science of entomology in some important way may be elected fellows of the society. The number of fellows shall not exceed fifty at any time.

Article IV.

OFFICERS.

SECTION 1. The officers of the society shall be a President, two Vice-Presidents, and a Secretary-Treasurer. The duty of these officers shall be those usually pertaining to their respective offices.

SECTION 2. The business of the society not otherwise provided for shall be in the hands of an executive committee consisting of the officers named in Section 1 and six additional members, who shall be elected by the society. Four members of the committee shall constitute a quorum.

SECTION 3. The President shall represent the society upon the Council of the American Association for the Advancement of Science.*

Article V.

ELECTIONS.

SECTION 1. Election of Members. Nominations for membership may be made by any two members, and election shall be by Executive Committee.

SECTION 2. Election of Fellows. All nominations for fellows shall be signed by three or more members or fellows, and each nomination shall be accompanied by the following information concerning the nominee: name, address, occupation, branches of entomology engaged in, positions held involving entomological experience, entomological work done, and list of publications.

Election shall be by ballot at the annual meeting, upon nominations approved by the executive committee. Ballot may also be taken upon such other nominations, previously sent to the executive committee, as may be demanded by any five members or fellows. All elections of fellows shall require a two thirds vote of the members present.

SECTION 3. All officers shall be elected by ballot at the annual meeting, for a term of one year, and shall be eligible for re-election.

* This section was adopted provisionally; it is to be included if affiliation with A. A. S. be granted.
